

KeyRing
... We're Life Changing

Human Rights: Fair or Unfair?

Read the words carefully and decide if these stories are fair or unfair.

Judith's Story

Judith's support staff always make her decisions for her.

Do you think this is fair or unfair?

Why?

Paul's Story

Paul chooses his own activities to do at the day centre.

Do you think this is fair or unfair?

Why?

Irene and Ivan's Story

Irene and Ivan are in love and want to get married. Their families have told them they are too old to get married.

Do you think this is fair or unfair?

Why?

Alice's Story

Alice and her social worker always make important decisions together.

Do you think this is fair or unfair?

Why?

Amira's Story

Amira is a Muslim. Staff at her day centre have told her that she cannot pray at midday because it means she will be late for her dinner.

Do you think this is fair or unfair?

Why?

George's Story

George has been told that he should not talk about his views on the Back Lives Matter movement because it upsets some people.

Do you think this is fair or unfair?

Why?

Syeda's Story

Syeda was not given easy read information about the different parties in the election. So it was hard for her to decide who to vote for.

Do you think this is fair or unfair?

Why?

Laura's Story

Laura's support staff grab her by the arm and neck when they want her to go back to her room.

Do you think this is fair or unfair?

Why?

Mandy's Story

Mandy is allowed to leave her supported living facility to go and meet her friends whenever she wants to.

Do you think this is fair or unfair?

Why?

A composite image featuring the Human Rights Act logo (a crown and two lions) in the top left. Below it is a circular inset showing three diverse people (two men and one woman) smiling. In the bottom right, a laptop screen displays the word 'click' in blue with a white hand cursor pointing at it.	For more information on human rights go to the Equality and Human Rights Commission website: www.equalityhumanrights.com/en/human-rights/human-rights-act
---	--

North Yorkshire Learning Disability Partnership Board – September 2020

nypartnerships.org.uk/learningdisabilitypartnershipboard