

North Yorkshire Channel Panel

Purpose of the Channel Panel

Channel is a programme which focuses on providing support at an early stage to people who are identified as being vulnerable to being drawn into terrorism. The programme uses a multi-agency approach to protect vulnerable people, from radicalisation and extremism, by;

- Identifying individuals at risk
- Assessing the nature and extent of that risk, and
- Developing the most appropriate support plan for the individuals concerned.

The Channel process is managed and chaired by North Yorkshire County Council, in conjunction with the police. The panel is multi-agency. Panel members act as SPOCs (Single Points of Contact) for their organisations. As such they will be expected to raise awareness around this agenda and they provide advice and guidance to practitioners within their organisation.
